Automaker to focus on using its Talegaon plant in Maharashtra as an export hub

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT MUMBA

Following lukewarm demand for its cars, GM has decided to cease vehicle sales operations in India by the end of 2017. GM will stop sales of its Chevrolet brand of vehicles in India including the Beat, Cruze, Tavera, Spark, Enjoy and Trailblazer on December 31, 2017.

The U.S. company said it would, however, continue to provide support to its affected customers, employees, dealers and suppliers.

GM, which started operations in India in 1995, said the company's manufacturing facility at Talegaon, near Pune, would hereafter serve as an export hub.

"The decision [to focus on exports and to cease domestic sales], which follows a comprehensive review of future product plans for GM India, is part of a series of actions taken by General Motors to address the perform-
